Two patients from the Home for the Blind, at No. 512 Gates avenue, Brooklyn, are in Seney Hospital as the result of a fall into the areaway of St. John's School, Fifth avenue and Twenty-third street. They are Matthew Cavanagh and Joseph Cheevers, each twenty-nine years old. Cavanagh has a broken knee and Cheevers a serious scalp wound.

The two men visited friends in South Brooklyn, and going home lost their way and tumbled into the area of the school, falling ten feet to a concrete was present and conducted the service. The relatives and friends of the class filled the sacred edifice, and the ceremony was very affecting.

AMITYVILLE, L. J., June 9.—Seventeen novices received the habit last evening at the Dominican Convent at North Amityville. Bishop McDonnell was present and conducted the service.

The candidates marched into the church arrayed in bridal costumes, each wearing a wreath of flowers and attended by a bevy of bridesmaids. At the altar they solemnly renounced the gayeties of the world, at first facing the congregation and later turning to the altar, they laid aside the wreath of flowers signifying their formal retirement from the world. Later they appeared at the altar attired in the sombre robes of the order for the final ceremonies.
